Chapter 1 by Lilly

I barely even know her, but I love her. I trust her with my life. Her name is Stormy. We went to elementary school together though we've never talked before. It's been a year since I've been to public school. (I was home schooled for a year.) Her hair was blond, she had blue eyes and glasses. She started to talk to me, snapping me out of my daydream.

"Hey, it's Sarah right?"

"yeah." I hope she didn't hear the stutter in my voice.

"What are you doing here i thought you were home schooled?" She asked.

It was hard not to stare at her. I wanted to tell her the reason why I wasn't home schooled anymore, but I just met her.

"Um...it doesn't matter."

"please tell me i can keep a secret." It was like she was looking right through me.

"Can I trust you?"

"Yeah." I said.

"Ok, I haven't told anybody this but i'm bi. I just had to tell someone." She said it so fast i almost didn't hear.

Then I did the one thing i thought i'd never do.

" Can I tell you something?" she nodded her head. "I'm lesbian."

I can't believe i just said that. She looked surprised for a second, but then she said " I won't tell anyone." After the next few days we told each other everything, and then she asked me out. Of course I said yes. We dated for three weeks until I found out she had a boyfriend and she told my best friend that I get in the way of their relationship. For some reason, I still loved her. We wrote each other love letters and she would say she loved me and I would say it back. I tried to get over her but i couldn't.
